

Index Cards
Summer Reading – Reading Olympics Books
Grades Entering 4-8

Any student planning to be on Reading Olympics for the 2007-2008 school year please make informational index cards for the Reading Olympics books you read over the summer. Bring the index cards to school the first week of library class and receive a special prize! Enjoy the Reading Olympic books, they are great lists for both levels! See you in September!

Information needed on the Index Cards:

Your Name and Grade

Book Title

Author

Book Facts (to help you remember the book)

Several questions you would ask other students to help prepare for the competition!

Example: In the book Shakespeare's Secret, Who is possibly the real Shakespeare?
